

Source: Pexels

Essential Resources for Seniors Ready to Downsize

If you're a senior who's looking to downsize, you might feel confused about where to start. You probably have questions about the best way to pay for a new home, what you should keep and what you should toss, and how to plan your big move. We've rounded up some helpful articles with all of the information you'll need on downsizing.

Financial Assistance for Seniors Wanting to Downsize

Three Affordable Housing Programs for Seniors

How Veterans Can Qualify for Mortgage Assistance

How to Pay for Independent Living

Planning Your Next Steps

How to Choose the Perfect Place to Retire
How to Help an Elderly Loved One Downsize
10 Steps to Choosing the Right Senior Living Community

Get Ready to Impress Buyers

20 Tips to Declutter Your Home
How to Deep Clean Your House in 7 Days
6 Do's and Don'ts for Staging Your Home

Your Downsizing Checklist

3 Smart Secrets for Labeling Moving Boxes That Will Make Your Next Move a Breeze
How Much Does It Cost To Move? \$1,119 on Average
How to Stay Organized When Unpacking Your New Home

Seniors often find that downsizing is the key to feeling free in retirement. When you downsize, you can say goodbye to the many responsibilities that come with living in a large family home. Use these handy articles on your downsizing journey for useful tips and tricks!